Wedding Industry Town Hall: “Update on Conducting Weddings Safely & in Compliance”

Presented by Buncombe County Public Health

AUGUST

31

Monday, August 31, at 3:00 p.m.

In response to partner requests for more information on how to conduct weddings safely and in compliance with current safety regulations, Explore Asheville is hosting a second Town Hall for the wedding industry via Zoom Webinar, presented by Buncombe County public health officials.

This follow up to the wedding industry event we hosted earlier in the summer will include a review of regulations discussed during that earlier Town Hall as well as new material and clarification on current guidance. Attendees will have the opportunity to submit questions during the one-hour webinar via the Zoom chat function.

Webinar: "5-Step Action Plan for How to Handle Anti-Mask Guests"

Presented by NCRLA Corporate Partner Andria Lure Ryan

SEPTEMBER

2

Wednesday, September 2, at 10:00 a.m.

As an increasing number of businesses begin to require face coverings in their facilities – whether as a result of a local legal mandate or in the interest of public safety – there has been a corresponding increase in the number of well-publicized reports of customers and guests reacting in a belligerent, hostile, or even violent manner after being asked to comply with mask rules.

Join Explore Asheville for a free, one-hour webinar with Andria Lure Ryan, attorney with the North Carolina Restaurant & Lodging Association's Corporate Partner, Fisher & Phillips LLP, who will discuss steps your business can take to minimize the chances of such an incident occurring in your workplace, and what to do if an anti-mask guest disrupts your business. Andria will set forth a five-step plan to address this unfortunate part of our new reality.
