COVID RELIEF FUND EXPANDS ELIGIBILITY

Mortgage, Utility & Rent Relief Program for small businesses now includes certain nonprofits

Urgent opportunity! Applications are first come, first served

The NC Department of Commerce has announced significant changes to the Mortgage, Utility and Rent Relief Program to include certain nonprofits in the list of organizations eligible to apply, in addition to businesses with fewer than 50 employees.

If your business or nonprofit has experienced extraordinary disruption due to the pandemic, the MURR Program may be able to offer assistance with some of your fixed costs.

Applications are being accepted on a first come, first served basis. To qualify to receive these relief funds, you must meet certain eligibility criteria.

ELIGIBLE NONPROFITS & SMALL BUSINESSES INCLUDE:

- Museums
- Zoos & Botanical Gardens
- Event Facility Operators
- Amusement Arcades
- Banquet & Reception Halls
- Bars & Cocktail Lounges
- Pro or Semi-Pro Spectator Sports Teams
